

Police Blotter

Police and criminal activities from February 8 – 14, 2010

Mon. Feb. 8, 9:33 am: Unknown person(s) shattered the right rear passenger window of a vehicle parked at 650 Curtiss Parkway (Miami Springs Country Club) and removed a canvas bag containing an address book; value $35.

Mon. Feb. 8, 4:19 pm: Subject(s) removed a panel from a doggy door, then the key that was left inserted in the deadbolt on the inside of the door of a residence in the 1200 block of Swan Avenue to gain entry. Once inside, a 40" television, a 42" television, a laptop computer and a digital camera were removed; value $3,196.

Mon. Feb. 8, 5:59 pm: Subject(s) entered a residence in the 900 block of Ludlam Drive through a bathroom window and removed five watches, two wedding rings, a gold bracelet, two digital cameras, two game systems, a laptop computer, checks, credit cards and a briefcase; value $12,650.

Mon. Feb. 8, 11:15 pm: A vehicle was removed from the parking lot at 3401 N.W. 42nd Avenue (Red Roof Inn). Items inside the vehicle were miscellaneous tools, two remote control cars, luggage containing miscellaneous clothing and two video cameras; total vehicle and property value $17,750.

Thurs. Feb. 11, 9:45 am: Public works employees discovered that unknown subjects wrote graffiti in black and purple marker on two of the gazebo poles; damage $50.

Thurs. Feb. 11, 10:25 am: A motorcycle was removed from the back yard of a residence in the 500 block of Lafayette Drive; value $8,500.

Fri. Feb. 12, 8:11 pm: Subject(s) smashed the kitchen window of a residence in the 500 block of Quail Avenue and used a pillowcase taken from inside to carry a wedding ring set, two work rings, two gold rings with stones, nine gold chains, a Pearl set, Tanzanite set and an Emerald set; value $9,050.

Fri. Feb. 12, 11:35 pm: Subject(s) gained entry into a residence in the 400 block of Palmetto Drive by prying open the rear door and removed a camera, $700 cash, and a watch; value $5,200.

Sun. Feb. 14, 5 am: Subject(s) cut the screen of a kitchen door window to gain entry into an apartment at 135 Curtiss Parkway and removed a lap top computer, a bag containing $370 in change, and an iPod; value $2,670.

Sun. Feb. 14, 1:35 pm: A guest at the Holiday Inn (1111 South Royal Poinciana Boulevard) checked out of her room and once at the airport, realized she left her jewelry inside a cup in the bathroom of her room. When she returned to the hotel to retrieve the jewelry, housekeeping had already cleaned the room and the cup was missing. The manager advised they checked the garbage with negative results; value $8,700.